

Check with an adult first so they can tell you where you are allowed to play!

"Apples are falling!"

This activity song should be sung to the tune of "London's Burning". You can act it out on your own indoors or outside – or try singing it in a round with your friends or family.

1

ACTION: Stretch up your arms then bring them down in front of you, wiggling your fingers as you do.

"Apples are falling,"
"Apples are falling,"

"Fetch the basket,"
"Fetch the basket,"

2

ACTION: Run across the room, pretend to pick something up off the ground then run back.

3

ACTION: Stretch out your arms in front of you with your palms facing upwards. Then, move your arms back towards your body quickly as if you are giving someone a signal to come towards you.

"Come quick!"
"Come quick!"

4

"Pick them all up,"
"Pick them all up."

ACTION: Crouch down on the ground and thrust out your arms in different directions as if you are gathering up the apples.
